

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on
International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

Dr. Jens Ambrock

The Hamburg Commissioner for Data Protection & Freedom of Information, Hamburg, Germany

Dr. Jens Ambrock is Head of Department at the Hamburg Data Protection Authority. Together with his team, he supervises the compliance of companies in Germany's second largest city with the EU General Data Protection Regulation. As co-leader of the Schrems II task force, he coordinates the enforcement of the numerous German data protection authorities with regard to the requirements for international data transfers. He is a rapporteur on policy papers of the European Data Protection Board and author in numerous books on data protection law.

Denise E. Backhouse

Little Mendelson, P.C., New York, NY, USA

Denise is a Shareholder and eDiscovery Counsel at Little Mendelson, P.C. Her practice focuses on litigating the eDiscovery aspects of class and collective actions, as well as leveraging her significant international experience to help employers with cross-border discovery challenges. Denise advises on and conducts all phases of discovery, providing clients with cost-saving, leading-edge technology solutions in this rapidly developing area. She has engaged in eDiscovery motion practice in multiple jurisdictions and has worked on discovery responses to the EEOC, SEC, FINRA, DOJ, FTC, and state attorneys general. Denise serves on the Steering Committee of The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6), and is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1) and Working Group 11 on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11). She co-chaired the 2014 Annual Sedona Conference International Programme on Cross-Border Discovery and Data Protection Laws in London, England, is an Editor-in-Chief of The International Investigations Principles, and contributed to the Primer on Social Media and Commentary on Protection of Privileged ESI. She is also a member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals and a Certified Information Privacy Professional/Europe (CIPP/E). She is a Founding Director of the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law Data Law Initiative and lectures on International eDiscovery and Information Governance Law. Denise received her J.D. from Columbia University Law School, and a M.A. in late medieval history and a B.A. with first-class honors, both from the University of Melbourne, Australia.

Lori Baker

Dubai International Financial Centre Authority, Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Lori is an experienced attorney with expertise in data protection and regulatory compliance, as well as broad practice in commercial contracting. She is qualified in both the USA (in the states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania) and the UK, and is a Fellow of Information Privacy as certified by the International

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

Association of Privacy Professionals. Lori now provides data protection and security strategy and support in one of the leading financial centers in the MEASA region, while in her own time she writes and speaks on various data protection and compliance topics. Prior to relocating to Dubai in 2016, Lori was based in London, UK for 10 years, having worked most recently for Fieldfisher LLP in the technology and outsourcing team as a senior privacy and cybersecurity associate. She held in-house roles as Senior Compliance and Privacy Counsel at Dun & Bradstreet, Head of Ethics and Compliance at Orange Business Services and Global Regulatory/Privacy Specialist at BT Global Services. Lori attended DeSales University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts in politics with a minor in philosophy, followed by Widener University School of Law (the Delaware Law School), where she was awarded a Juris Doctor with an emphasis in international business transactions. While at Widener, Lori enrolled in the Geneva International Law Institute, directed by instructors from the WTO, the UN and other international organizations.

William Wallace Belt Jr.

Complete Discovery Source, Naples, FL, USA

Bill has 25 years of experience as a partner, shareholder and board member of AmLaw 200 law firms, where he built one of the first law firm eDiscovery practices. His extensive experience as a trial lawyer, including trying to verdict over 20 jury trials, his work with the “Big Four,” and technology providers, gives Bill a perspective built upon broad and unique experience. Bill started his career as a trial lawyer and his team’s defense verdict in EMF/mobile phone litigation was selected as a Top 10 Defense Verdict by the National Law Journal. Bill was also recognized by the American Bar Association for his work on the Exxon Valdez litigation. For the last 10 years, Bill has helped Fortune 500 and Global Fortune 2000 companies update and develop their eDiscovery and Information Governance strategies and playbooks, including cloud and on-premise enterprise implementations and migrations as Managing Director of Complete Discovery Source Consulting and previously at Deloitte. He has participated in and now runs a Corporate-Only Roundtable where corporate eDiscovery teams, judges and industry experts have met to share experiences and discuss emerging challenges and technological and legal solutions. He has led managed review teams at both law firms and service providers. His team at Deloitte was selected as a Top 3 managed review provider by the New York and Washington, D.C. Law Journals.

Chantal Bernier

Dentons Canada, LLP, Ottawa, ON, Canada

Chantal leads Dentons’ Canadian Privacy and Cybersecurity practice group and is a member of the Firm’s Government Affairs and Public Policy group. Chantal comes to Dentons after nearly 6 years as Assistant and Interim Privacy Commissioner of Canada. In that capacity, Chantal led national and international

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

privacy investigations in the public and private sectors, as well privacy audits, privacy impact assessment reviews, technological analysis, and privacy policy development and research.

Kevin F. Brady

Volkswagen Group of America, Herndon, VA, USA

Kevin has extensive experience providing advice and counsel on electronic discovery, electronic information management, data privacy, and data security issues. He also advised companies on records retention and information governance programs, compliance with eDiscovery demands, and the development and implementation of policies and procedures related to the deployment of technology solutions. In addition to having served as an expert witness and Special Discovery Master on issues related to electronic discovery, Kevin lectures and publishes extensively in the areas of eDiscovery, records management, data privacy, data security, attorney competence, and legal ethics. Kevin received a J.D. from Widener University School of Law (magna cum laude), an M.B.A. from Widener University, and a B.A. from the University of Delaware. He serves as Chair Emeritus of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1) Steering Committee. Kevin is also Co-Chair Emeritus of the Georgetown University Law Center's Advisory Board for the Advanced E-Discovery Institute and former Co-Chair of the Delaware Supreme Court's Commission on Law and Technology. He is a founding member and Past President of the Richard K. Herrmann Technology Inn of Court in Wilmington, Delaware.

Jim Calvert

Troutman Pepper Hamilton Sanders LLP, Atlanta, GA, USA

Jim is a Principal at Troutman Pepper eMerge, where he consults with case teams and external clients to develop strategies and discovery plans for a wide array of litigation matters in state and federal courts, as well as arbitrations, governmental investigations and regulatory proceedings. Jim advises clients on all phases of discovery, negotiates discovery agreements, and advocates for clients involved in discovery disputes. He has managed the discovery process on a variety of matters including construction litigation, products liability litigation, antitrust and other regulatory approval proceedings, SEC and DOJ investigations, commercial litigation, trade secret litigation, and patent infringement claims. Jim has experience developing, implementing, and managing cross-border discovery plans for several clients, including in large-scale multiparty matters. He also takes 30(b)(6) depositions on discovery topics and uses the knowledge gained to advocate for his clients. Jim is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1), The Sedona Conference Working

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6), and the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

John M. Conlon

Mayer Brown LLP, New York, NY, USA

John is a co-leader of Mayer Brown's Commercial Litigation practice. His litigation and arbitration practice is particularly wide-ranging. He has significant experience in disputes that involve bankruptcy, judgment enforcement, commodities, banking, securities, hotels, construction, real estate, employment, contracts, and intellectual property claims. John has frequently represented clients in state and federal courts across the country as well as in international and domestic arbitrations. He also counsels clients on drafting and structuring transactions to reduce litigation exposure. John recently completed a two-week trial in the District of Las Vegas, obtaining a substantial judgment in his client's favor on piercing the corporate veil and fraudulent conveyance claims.

Andrea L. D'Ambra

Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP, New York, NY, USA

Andrea is a partner in the New York office of Norton Rose Fulbright, where she heads the EDiscovery and Information Governance Group for the United States. Her practice focuses on eDiscovery, information management, data privacy, and cross-border discovery. Andrea counsels clients on preservation and data management issues, and has drafted information governance and records management policies for a number of multinational companies. In addition to counseling, she has assisted clients in navigating foreign data privacy laws while complying with U.S. discovery obligations. Andrea served for over seven years as an officer in the United States Navy. Her diverse Naval experience includes serving as an action officer for high-profile investigations within the Bureau of Naval Personnel and managing the administrative and legal issues of the Navy's computer network defense command. Andrea also is an adjunct professor of law at Temple Law School and William and Mary School of Law, where she teaches classes on Electronic Discovery. She received her B.S. in Political Science from the United States Naval Academy and her J.D. from William and Mary School of Law.

Emily Fedeles

Colgate-Palmolive, New York, NY, USA

In her role as Chief Data Privacy Counsel at Colgate-Palmolive Company, Emily is responsible for the establishment and maintenance of a comprehensive global data privacy compliance program. She also oversees Colgate's cyber security efforts in coordination with Colgate's IT risk management team. Emily provides legal support for Colgate's digital initiatives including its connected devices, digital marketing, and social media activities, in connection with the negotiation of information technology and digital transactions. Prior to her time at Colgate, Emily was an eDiscovery, Privacy, and Litigation associate at law firms in New York City; Geneva, Switzerland; and Tampa, Florida where she worked on issues ranging from discovery management processes, records and information governance, data privacy and security, artificial intelligence, and products liability litigation. She graduated from Emory University School of Law with a JD and from Emory University with a bachelor's degree.

Megan Ferraro

Meta Platforms, Inc, Tiburon, CA, USA

Megan is Associate General Counsel, eDiscovery & Information Governance at Meta Platforms, Inc. In this role Megan provides legal and technical advice in Meta's litigation, regulatory, and information governance matters globally. Megan has served as an in-house corporate lawyer for over 14 years. Prior to Meta, Megan was Senior Counsel, Litigation for Hyatt Hotels Corporation. Megan began her legal career as a government lawyer with the City of Chicago and the Kane County States Attorney's Office. She is a graduate of DePaul College of Law and The Ohio State University

Hon. James C. Francis (ret.)

JAMS, New York, NY, USA

Judge Francis is a Mediator and Arbitrator at JAMS. From 1985 until 2017, he served as a U.S. Magistrate Judge in the Southern District of New York, after which he spent two years as a Distinguished Lecturer at the CUNY School of Law where he taught Electronic Discovery. Judge Francis received his B.A. from Yale College in 1974, his juris doctor degree from the Yale Law School in 1978, and a master's degree in public policy from Harvard University, also in 1978. Following graduation from law school, he clerked for the Honorable Robert L. Carter in the Southern District of New York. He then joined the Civil Appeals and Law Reform Unit of the Legal Aid Society where he conducted impact litigation in the areas of housing and education and served as director of the Disability Rights Unit. For more than a decade, he taught Constitutional Torts as an adjunct professor at the Fordham University School of Law. Judge Francis speaks frequently on electronic discovery and is a member of the Judicial Advisory Committee of The Sedona Conference, the Steering Committee of Sedona's Working Group 6, the Advisory Committee of the Georgetown Advanced E-Discovery Institute, and the Advisory Board of the Cardozo Data Law Initiative.

Natascha Gerlach

Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, Brussels, Belgium

Natascha is a Senior Attorney with Cleary Gottlieb in their Brussels office. Her practice focuses on electronic discovery and data protection law. Since 2009, Natascha has managed Cleary's European eDiscovery Department leveraging her experience in US eDiscovery by implementing new technologies and streamlining processes in her expanding team. Her group supports the growing e-discovery needs of all of Cleary's European offices across all practice groups. Natascha advises clients on all aspects of data privacy issues, in particular on the crossroads of international eDiscovery and data protection. Natascha is currently serving as Chair of The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6) Steering Committee.

Michael Hahn

IAB, New York, NY, USA

Michael is Senior Vice President & General Counsel at IAB, IAB Tech Lab and Trustworthy Accountability Group (TAG). He has responsibility for all legal matters, including the direction of legal strategy, antitrust compliance, intellectual property rights issues, and general corporate and contractual matters. Michael joined IAB, IAB Tech Lab and TAG from Lowenstein Sandler LLP where he served as Vice Chair of the firm's Antitrust Practice Group. Michael served previously as Co-Chair of the New Jersey State Bar Association Antitrust Law Committee. He also previously served on the Editorial Advisory Board of Competition Law 360 and the Advisory Board of the American Bar Association Antitrust Section's Civil Torts & RICO Committee. Michael frequently publishes on a range of legal and policy issues. He earned his B.A. in History and Political Science from Rutgers University, M.P.P. from Georgetown University and J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.

Rachael Hayward

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner, Edmonton, AB, Canada

Rachel has over 15 years' experience working in the privacy field. She has been in her current role as Director, Compliance and Special Investigations, with the Alberta Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for about 4 years. Her team leads high profile investigations, and offence investigations including the largest offense investigation in the history of the office, which resulted in 38 charges under the Health Information Act and additional criminal charges. Rachel is also responsible for the management of all breaches and privacy impact assessments reported to the office, comprising of approximately 70% of the files submitted to the office each year. She has a Master's degree in Public Administration, and is Certified Privacy Professional (Canada) and certified Information Privacy Manager. She was recently awarded the status of Fellow of Information Privacy by the International Association of Privacy Professionals. She is also certified in risk and information systems control.

Taylor Hoffman

Swiss Re, Armonk, NY, USA

Taylor is the global head of eDiscovery at Swiss Re, a leading wholesale provider of reinsurance, insurance, and other insurance-based forms of risk transfer. In this role, he oversees all aspects of eDiscovery and related cross-border data transfers, including developing policies and procedures, and managing case work. Prior positions include Corporate Counsel (Litigation and eDiscovery) at DISH Network, where he implemented an overhaul of DISH's eDiscovery Process, and as a Litigation Associate at Covington & Burling LLP. Taylor clerked for the Honorable Emilio M. Garza of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, and received his JD from the University of Chicago. Taylor currently serves as Chair Emeritus of the Steering Committee of The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6).

Elizabeth A. Holland

Ernst & Young LLP, Stuttgart, Germany

Elizabeth is a Senior Manager in the Forensics & Integrity Services department at Ernst & Young GmbH in Stuttgart, Germany, where she provides legal and business consulting to multinational companies, especially with regard to US litigation. Prior to moving to Germany, Elizabeth was an attorney at Carrington Coleman in Dallas, Texas, specializing in director and officer liability and professional malpractice litigation. She received her JD from the SMU Dedman School of Law and is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1) and The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6).

Rose J. Jones

King & Spalding, Atlanta, GA, USA

Rose is a Partner and King & Spalding's Global Director of e-Discovery Project Management and Technology and co-leads the firm's E-Discovery practice which was identified as one of the top e-discovery and information governance practices in the country by Chambers USA and Legal 500. She has been ranked by Chambers USA as one of the nation's top lawyers in e-discovery litigation practice. Her practice focuses on e-discovery with particular expertise in global e-discovery protocol development and implementation, international e-discovery issue counseling and guidance on selection and implementation of e-discovery technology. Rose has extensive experience representing clients as the lead e-Discovery lawyer in complex

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

investigations and litigations and serving as global eDiscovery counsel for clients providing strategic advice and oversight on all investigations and litigations.

Jerami D. Kemnitz

Little Mendelson P.C., Minneapolis, MN, USA

Jerami is a seasoned litigator with 22 years of private practice and in-house experience. He advises companies and legal teams in strategic and tactical eDiscovery, data privacy and security solutions, and the creation and implementation of operating models, protocols, policies, and procedures to efficiently balance risk management, compliance, and costs. Jerami previously served as Global Head of eDiscovery for Wells Fargo, managing the preservation, collection, review, and production of all business divisions' electronic data and case management for the litigation and investigations docket. Prior to that, he was founder and chair of Shook, Hardy & Bacon's International Discovery and Data Privacy Team. Jerami is an active member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1); The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6); The Sedona Conference Working Group 11 on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11); and chairs the Diversity Subcommittee on Attraction and the WG6 Middle East Committee.

David J. Kessler

Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP, New York, NY, USA

David is the Global Head of E-Discovery and Information Governance and the U.S. Head of Privacy at Norton Rose Fulbright. He has a particular focus on global data protection, cross-border discovery, and cyber security. He is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/E) through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) and is a member of the American Law Institute (ALI). David has been recognized by Chambers and Partners as one of the most prominent thought leaders on e-discovery.

Sayid Madar

ADGM, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

Sayid is the Head of Operations at the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner, Abu Dhabi Global Market ("ADGM"). With over 10 years of experience in data protection and privacy, he is responsible for overseeing the operations of the office. Prior to moving to the UAE, Sayid was a Lead Enforcement Officer at the UK Information Commissioner's Office. He has also held positions at various UK Government

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

Departments as a data protection compliance professional. Sayid has an LL.M. in Information Rights Law from Northumbria University and is an IAPP Fellow of Information Privacy.

Leeanne Mancari

DLA Piper, Los Angeles, CA, USA

Leeanne S. Mancari is a Chambers-ranked eDiscovery litigator and advisor, co-chair of the DLA Piper's eDiscovery and Information Management Platform. Leeanne manages all aspects of national and international discovery. She frequently serves as lead eDiscovery counsel on large-scale litigations, including multidistrict litigations. Her experience includes crafting and overseeing successful defense discovery strategy for matters with complex discovery issues. She frequently advises on discovery-related orders, drafts and argues discovery motions, and prepares and defends witnesses on eDiscovery-related topics. She formulates efficient and effective workflows for all phases of document collection, review and production, utilizing advanced technologies. Leeanne also advises on international data transfer issues. Further, Leeanne advises in pre-litigation and non-litigation settings related to information management, including preservation, records management, defensible deletion, risk assessments, and related policies and procedures. She regularly speaks on eDiscovery-related topics. Leeanne's background is in complex litigation representing companies in the life-sciences sector in mass torts litigation, commercial disputes and investigations.

Wayne Matus

SafeGuard Privacy, Purchase, NY, USA

Wayne is the co-founder and General Counsel of SafeGuard Privacy, a SaaS software company. He is the recipient of numerous awards and honors, including Chambers and Partners Band 1 (highest rating, Global and USA Nationwide - eDiscovery, Privacy, Data Security), The Legal 500 (Data Protection and Privacy - US), The Burton Award (The Burton Foundation - US Library of Congress) and The New York County Lawyers Association's Boris Kostelanetz President's Medal. Prior to joining SafeGuard, he was a Managing Director at UBS AG heading global functions in Group Legal and Group Investigations and Practice Group Head (each of eDiscovery and Privacy) at Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw & Pittman. He is presently on the Steering Committee of Working Group 6 of the Sedona Conference and the Advisory Council of the Institute of Advertising Ethics.

Briody Meyers

Boehringer Ingelheim, Ridgefield, CT, USA

Briody Meyers serves as Director & Senior Counsel - eDiscovery for Boehringer Ingelheim USA in Ridgefield, CT. He joined the German-based company in June of 2018 where he focuses on directing Boehringer's eDiscovery workflows, systems and legal strategy. Briordy also works closely with Boehringer's data privacy officers to ensure compliance with U.S. data privacy laws and cross-border transfers of data subject to the GDPR. Prior to taking the position with Boehringer, Briordy represented clients along all stages of the EDRM as discovery attorney at Troutman Sanders eMerge, Sidley Austin LLP and McDermott, Will & Emery. Briordy received his B.A. from the University of Virginia and his J.D. from the College of William and Mary School of Law.

Scott Milner

Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, Philadelphia, PA, USA

Co-leader and one of the original attorneys in Morgan Lewis's eData practice, Scott counsels and advises companies in electronic discovery and IG processes and best practices. He works with Morgan Lewis's lawyers across practice groups to tailor strategies and discovery management plans for clients around the globe, in numerous industries and disciplines. Scott's practice encompasses all phases of eDiscovery, from preservation and collection to review and production of large volumes of electronically stored information. Scott participates in 26(f) conferences, negotiates ESI protocols and FRE 502(d) orders along with advising clients on collection and search and retrieval methodologies. Clients frequently engage and rely on Scott to negotiate discovery protocols with several U.S. government agencies, as well as numerous state U.S. Attorneys' offices. He serves as eDiscovery liaison in jurisdictions across the United States, negotiates TAR protocols, and handles motions practice related to discovery disputes. Sharing more than a decade of experience in eDiscovery, Scott is a frequent speaker on topics in the discovery, innovation and disruption space. He received his J.D., cum laude, from Villanova University School of Law and B.A. from the University of Florida.

Hon. Elliott Myers

The Supreme Court of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC, Canada

Mr. Justice Elliott Myers was appointed to the Supreme Court of British Columbia in 2015. Prior to that he was the head of the commercial litigation group at Bull Housser & Tupper - now Norton Rose. In both his practice and on the bench, Elliott has dealt with cross-border issues in the context of class-actions and issues concerning choice of forum, enforcement of judgments and other conflicts of laws issues. He is a strong proponent of the use of technology for litigation and in the courts and is a frequent speaker in the area.

Dr. Christian Schröder

Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, Düsseldorf, Germany

Christian heads Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe's European Privacy Advisory Team and counsels on privacy and cyber matters, with a focus on cross-Atlantic matters. Christian helps clients build privacy compliance

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

programs, drafts and negotiates data transfer and processing agreements, regularly handles multijurisdictional data breaches and defends clients in investigations before local supervisory authorities. Christian's core focus is on international matters, and as such, he regularly advises clients on data disclosures in the U.S. before courts and supervisory authorities. Christian and his practice are ranked by The Legal 500 Germany and The Legal 500 EMEA as well as Best Lawyers for being among the leading German and European IT and data privacy practices since 2018. Christian studied at the Universities of Bonn and Kiel where he earned his PhD with a thesis comparing the enforceability of privacy policies and binding corporate rules in the U.S. and Germany for which also won the Academic Data Protection Award DAFTA in 2007. Christian is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Groups 6 and 11.

James A. Sherer

BakerHostetler, New York, NY, USA

James A. Sherer is a Partner in the New York office of BakerHostetler, where he co-leads the Emerging Technology Team for the Digital Assets and Data Management Group while directing Information Governance, Data Privacy, and Artificial Intelligence engagements. James holds an MBA, the CIPP/US, CIPP/E, CIPM, FIP, and PLS data privacy professional credentials, the CIP and IGP information governance designations, the UCLA Extension Global Cyber Institute's Cybersecurity Certification, and the CEDS and eDPC eDiscovery specialist credentials. James is Global Chambers® Ranked for eDiscovery, a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, and serves as a member of The Sedona Conference® Working Groups One, Six, and Eleven and the IEEE Organizational Governance of AI Working Group.

David C. Shonka

Redgrave LLP, Chantilly, VA, USA

David C. Shonka is a partner at Redgrave LLP, where he counsels clients on issues related to data privacy, cybersecurity, eDiscovery, cross-border data transfers, government civil law enforcement investigations, and information governance. In addition to his work on client matters, David serves as the Firm's General Counsel and oversees and reviews legal, risk, and compliance issues. Prior to joining Redgrave LLP, he served three years as the Acting General Counsel of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) (March 2016 - April 2018, January - June 2009, and October 2012 - June 2013). In that role, he frequently commented on Federal legislative proposals and was the FTC's chief legal advisor and oversaw its Litigation, Legal Counsel, and Opinions & Analysis groups and the agency's FOIA, employment law, and Energy Counsel staff. David also served ten years as the FTC's Principal Deputy General Counsel and as a member of the Administrative Conference of the U.S., serving on the Committee on Judicial Review and the Council of Independent Regulatory Agencies. He is an active member of the Sedona Conference, and he has previously served and is now serving again on the Steering Committee for Working Group 6 (cross-border transfers of data), the Steering Committee for Working Groups 1 (e-discovery and electronic records) and is active in Working Group 11 (privacy and data security). David is a recipient of the 2015 Presidential Rank Award of Meritorious Executive.

Nichole Sterling

BakerHostetler, New York, NY, USA

Nichole is an associate in BakerHostetler's New York office, where she is a member of the Digital Assets and Data Management practice. Her practice focuses on privacy and data protection, information governance, emerging technology, and electronic discovery. Prior to joining BakerHostetler, Nichole focused on discovery in complex litigation at two other New York law firms. She was also a legal stagiaire for Judge von Danwitz at the Court of Justice of the European Union where her work focused on cases involving "the right to be forgotten," data retention, and the Icelandic financial crisis. Nichole holds the IAPP CIPP/E and CEDS eDiscovery specialist credentials. She is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1), Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery, and Disclosure (WG6), and Working Group 11 on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11).

Lesley Weaver

Bleichmar Fonti & Auld LLP, Oakland, CA, USA

Lesley represents public entities, consumers, and private businesses in antitrust, securities and consumer litigation, primarily class actions or opt out matters. She has been appointed to leadership positions in some of the country's largest and most significant MDL class cases in recent years. She currently serves as co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in In re Facebook, Inc. Consumer Privacy User Profile Litigation MDL, the case challenging Facebook's widespread practice of selling access to users' content notwithstanding that users share it privately on the Facebook platform. In October 2014, she tried an internet privacy case against a Chinese-owned, California-based internet site, recovering 100 percent of economic damages and punitive damages jury verdict, and significant injunctive relief. Lesley holds degrees from Harvard College and the University of Virginia Law School. She has studied at the University of Bonn, and was a Rotary exchange student at Haderslev Katedralskole.

Dino Wilkinson

Clyde & Co, Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

Dino is a partner with international law firm Clyde & Co based in the UAE. Dino leads the firm's technology, media and telecommunications (TMT) practice in the Middle East and co-heads the global practice. After starting his career with a regional law firm in the UK before joining Norton Rose Fulbright in London, Dino now has more than fifteen years of experience in advising clients throughout the Middle East and North Africa region on transactional and advisory TMT matters. Dino has supported organizations in the public and private sectors on technology-related legal issues including IT contracting, data privacy compliance, cyber risk management and the regulation of emerging technologies. He has also worked with regional governments and regulators throughout the Middle East on legislative development in this area, including drafting an Electronic Transactions Law and Data Protection Law for Dubai International Financial Centre, consulting on data protection laws in other Gulf countries, advising the government of Saudi Arabia on implementing regulations for a media law, and supporting the government of Qatar on a benchmarking of its e-commerce laws against OECD principles. Dino has been consistently ranked in the top tier of TMT specialists in the UAE by independent legal directories and is named in The Legal 500's Hall of Fame for his work in this space.

Miriam Wimmer

Brazilian Data Protection Authority (ANPD), Brasilia, Brazil

Miriam is a Director at the Brazilian Data Protection Authority, ANPD. She holds a PhD degree in Communications and Cultural Policy and a Master degree in Public Law. She is a professional civil servant since 2007, with experience in senior positions in different public organizations, such as the national telecommunications regulator, the Ministry of Communications, and the Ministry of Science, Technology, Innovation and Communication. She is also a Professor at the Law School of Instituto Brasiliense de Direito Público – IDP and guest lecturer on digital law and personal data protection at several other educational institutions.

Kenneth J. Withers

The Sedona Conference, Phoenix, AZ, USA

Ken is the Deputy Executive Director of The Sedona Conference and its Corporate Secretary. Since 1989, he has published several widely-distributed papers on electronic discovery, hosted a popular website on electronic discovery and electronic records management issues, and given presentations at more than 300 conferences and workshops for legal, records management, and industry audiences. His most recent publications are Ephemeral Data and the Duty to Preserve Discoverable Electronically Stored Information in the University of Baltimore Law Review (2008); Living Daily with Weekley Homes in the Texas State Bar Advocate (Summer 2010); and Risk Aversion, Risk Management, and the Overpreservation Problem in Electronic Discovery in the South Carolina Law Review (2013). From 1999 through 2005, he was a Senior Education Attorney at the Federal Judicial Center in Washington D.C., where he developed Internet-based distance learning programs for the federal judiciary concentrating on issues of technology and the administration of justice. Ken also contributed to several well-known FJC publications, including the

The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management,
Discovery, and Disclosure

Annual Meeting 2022

Online (Zoom)
February 3-4, 2022

DIALOGUE LEADERS

---

Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth Edition (2004), Effective Use of Courtroom Technology (2001), and the Civil Litigation Management Manual (2001).

Mike Charles Zogby

Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, Florham Park, NY, USA

Michael is a partner and deputy leader of the nationally ranked Product Liability and Mass Torts group at Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP. Mike also serves as co-chair of the firm's Health & Life Sciences Litigation team. His trial and crisis management practice includes the defense of global clients in highly regulated industries in cross-border, complex litigation, mass tort, intellectual property, data privacy, and product liability actions filed by consumer and government parties. He is an elected member of the Products Liability Advisory Council and the International Association of Defense Counsel, and he is a trustee of the Trial Attorneys of America and the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey. Mike was a member of The Sedona Conference's WG6 Proportionality in Cross-Border Disputes brainstorming group.