

Alexander Altman

Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, New York, NY, USA

As a Senior Associate in Arnold & Porter's Privacy, Cybersecurity & Data Strategy practice, Alex works with clients across industries to develop and assess privacy and cybersecurity programs, respond to data breaches, conduct internal investigations, and litigate privacy-related claims. Among many other matters, Alex has counseled clients on compliance with biometric privacy laws, including the implementation of facial recognition technology. He is keenly interested in emerging technologies and how they drive legal and societal change. Alex is a proud graduate of Vassar College and Fordham University School of Law, is admitted to practice law in New York, and has a pending admission to the California bar.

Kate Baxter-Kauf

Lockridge Grindal Nauen PLLP, Minneapolis, MN, USA

Kate is a partner at Lockridge Grindal Nauen PLLP in Minneapolis, MN, where she represents individuals, consumers, and financial institutions in plaintiffs' side data breach litigation, in addition to cybersecurity and privacy counseling, and antitrust, consumer, securities, and ERISA class actions. She has litigated on behalf of data breach plaintiffs in federal and state courts across the country, on behalf of governmental entities defending against privacy-related claims, and has particular expertise in the areas of plaintiffs' side discovery and attorney client privilege disputes. Kate currently serves on numerous court-appointed executive committees in litigation arising from retailer, medical, and information security-based data breaches, and has argued numerous discovery disputes and dispositive motions for class and data breach litigants. She has been recognized as a North Star Lawyer by the Minnesota State Bar Association for her commitment to pro bono work on behalf of indigent criminal defendants, and as a Minnesota Rising Star by Super Lawyers, every year since 2015. In 2018, she was named a Top Lawyer Under 40 by Law360 in the area of Cybersecurity & Privacy.

Robert E. Cattanach

Dorsey & Whitney LLP, Minneapolis, MN, USA

Bob is a partner in Dorsey & Whitney's Minneapolis office. He represents clients in the areas of cybersecurity, data breach response and privacy compliance, using the perspective and skills gained as a seasoned trial lawyer to help clients navigate the complexities of multi-jurisdictional problems. Recognized by his peers as a thought leader in the areas of data security and privacy litigation, Bob spearheaded The Sedona Conference's publication of the highly acclaimed Incident Response Guide, and continues to serve as an integral part of Sedona's International Programmes, leading the discussion on subjects ranging from incident responses, extra-territorial enforcement of the European Union General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), and the intricacies of California's Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA). He counsels both the C-Suite and corporate Boards of Directors and Audit Committees on matters of cybersecurity, privacy and information governance. Bob is also a contributor to professional and journalistic coverage of cybersecurity issues, ranging from the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and USA Today.

Carol Alexis Chen

Winston and Strawn LLP, Los Angeles, CA, USA

Carol, an award-winning former career federal prosecutor in the United States Department of Justice, is a partner and trial lawyer in Winston & Strawn LLP's Los Angeles office. She handles high-stakes white collar criminal and complex civil litigation across various sectors including Financial Services and Banking and Technology, New Media, and Telecommunications. In addition, Carol responds to government inquiries and conducts sensitive internal investigations for her clients and counsels them on the development, implementation, and enhancement of compliance and remediation programs. Carol has particular expertise with respect to anti-money laundering and trade and export control laws and regulations and in matters involving Fintech, blockchain technology, and cryptocurrency. Prior to joining Winston & Strawn in 2021, Carol served as an Assistant United States Attorney with the United States Attorney's Office in Los Angeles, California for over 15 years in various supervisory roles including as Chief of the section that prosecuted, amongst other violations, money laundering and other financial crimes as well as transnational organized criminal groups which utilize cryptocurrency and/or the darknet.

Andrea L. D'Ambra

Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP, New York, NY, USA

Andrea is a partner in the New York office of Norton Rose Fulbright, where she heads the EDiscovery and Information Governance Group for the United States. Her practice focuses on eDiscovery, information management, data privacy, and cross-border discovery. Andrea counsels clients on preservation and data management issues, and has drafted information governance and records management policies for a number of multinational companies. In addition to counseling, she has assisted clients in navigating foreign data privacy laws while complying with U.S. discovery obligations. Andrea served for over seven years as an officer in the United States Navy. Her diverse Naval experience includes serving as an action officer for high-profile investigations within the Bureau of Naval Personnel and managing the administrative and legal issues of the Navy's computer network defense command. Andrea also is an adjunct professor of law at Temple Law School and William and Mary School of Law, where she teaches classes on Electronic Discovery. She received her B.S. in Political Science from the United States Naval Academy and her J.D. from William and Mary School of Law.

Stevie DeGroff

Colorado Department of Law, Denver, CO, USA

Stevie is an Assistant Attorney General, Data Privacy & Cybersecurity at the Colorado Department of Law.

Starr Turner Drum

Maynard Cooper & Gale, Birmingham, AL, USA

Starr leads the privacy division of the Cybersecurity & Privacy practice group at Maynard, Cooper & Gale. She assists clients with everything from developing globally-compliant privacy programs to defending privacy-focused litigation and regulatory investigations. Starr has successfully developed hundreds of internationally compliant privacy and information governance plans across several sectors and has served as privacy due diligence counsel on over $10 billion in private equity and M&A-related transactions. Starr has also defended numerous state and federal privacy class action and security breach cases and regulatory investigations. She is often invited to speak on emerging privacy issues, such as AI, biometrics, and marketing and data analytics. She also serves as an Adjunct Professor at The University of Alabama School of Law where she teaches privacy and data security.

Arianna Evers

WilmerHale, Washington, DC, USA

Arianna advises clients on privacy, data security, and consumer protection issues arising under federal, state, and international laws. Arianna represents clients in investigations and litigation with state attorneys general and the Federal Trade Commission concerning alleged privacy and consumer protection violations. She advises a broad range of clients on privacy and data security compliance challenges, including those related to the CCPA and the collection of biometrics. Arianna's work also involves preparedness and response related to cybersecurity incidents.

Sheryl Falk

Winston & Strawn LLP, Houston, TX, USA

Sheryl is co-chair of Winston & Strawn's Global Privacy and Data Security practice and is recognized as a premier resource in the field of privacy and technology. Her clients have described her "experience and talent" as "unparalleled." Sheryl draws upon her deep expertise in privacy, data security, and forensic technology as well as her strong litigation background to handle complicated data issues, lead computer forensic investigations, and develop data security and trade secret protection procedures. Sheryl is a former Federal Prosecutor and has been recognized in Legal 500 in Privacy/Cyber Security, Trade Secrets and Information Governance.

John C. Gray

Lewis Roca, Phoenix, AZ, USA

John Gray is Of Counsel with Lewis Roca Rothgerber Christie LLP. Based in Phoenix, John represents clients in a wide range of privacy and cybersecurity matters in both Arizona and California, and he has extensive litigation and regulatory experience in a number of jurisdictions. John is also a Certified Information Privacy Professional, has spoken and written on a variety of privacy and cybersecurity subjects, and is a regular host and contributor for the Phoenix and Bay Area Chapters of the CISO Executive Network. Before joining Lewis Roca, John served as Senior Litigation Counsel, Data Privacy Team Leader, and FinTech Sandbox Counsel at the Arizona Attorney General's Office, where he drafted much of Arizona's current breach-notification law and co-chaired the Technology Futures Subgroup of the Arizona Cybersecurity Team.

Serge D. Jorgensen

The Sylint Group, Sarasota, FL, USA

Serge serves as the Chief Technology Officer for the Sylint Group and provides technical input in the areas of information security, data forensics and incident response. He has received patents in engineering and math-related fields while developing secure, low-bandwidth data transmission techniques and methodologies. Serge works closely with the FBI and industry groups in addressing forensic and information security needs to safeguard critical infrastructure processes and components. In this work, he is responsible for developing and implementing secure communication protocols, traffic analysis techniques, malware identification, and remediation efforts. Serge works nationally and internationally to mitigate the effects of malicious attacks against corporate and government enterprises, is a published author, and a vice-chair of the ABA's Electronic Discovery and Digital Evidence committee.

David Kalat

Berkeley Research Group, Chicago, IL, USA

David is an information scientist and a testifying expert in electronic evidence, digital forensics, data analytics and information security. He is a licensed private detective, and the author of numerous publications on the history of information technologies. He leads the Chicago digital forensics lab for BRG's Global Investigations + Strategic Intelligence practice group. He has been qualified as an expert in electronic evidence and digital forensics in civil and criminal matters, in state and U.S. federal courts. David has testified in bench and jury trials, in class certification hearings, arbitrations, preliminary injunction hearings and in spoliation disputes. He has frequently testified in putative class actions involving data privacy laws.

Amy E. Keller

DiCello Levitt Gutzler LLC, Chicago, IL, USA

Amy is a partner at the law firm of DiCello Levitt Gutzler LLC, focusing her practice on consumer protection, products liability, and technology class action litigation. As the youngest woman ever appointed to lead a nationwide, multidistrict class action, Amy serves as co-lead counsel in data breach litigation involving Equifax and Marriott. She has built a reputation as an advocate for individuals and small businesses, alike. Amy is recognized as a National Law Journal Plaintiff Trailblazer, one of the Top 40 Under 40 trial lawyers in Illinois by National Trial Lawyers, and a Rising Star by Super Lawyers. She is a two-time chair of the Chicago Bar Association's Class Action Committee, and a board member of the Public Justice Foundation, a not-for-profit legal advocacy organization protecting consumers, employees, civil rights, and the environment.

Jerami D. Kemnitz

Littler Mendelson P.C., Minneapolis, MN, USA

Jerami is a seasoned litigator with over 25 years of private practice and in-house experience. He has advised clients in strategic and tactical eDiscovery, data privacy and security solutions, and the creation and implementation of operating models, protocols, policies, and procedures to efficiently balance risk management, compliance, and costs. Jerami currently serves as Director and Assistant General Counsel of Compliance, Privacy and Security for Littler Mendelson. Prior to that, Jerami served as Global Head of eDiscovery for Wells Fargo, and was founder and chair of Shook, Hardy & Bacon's International Discovery and Data Privacy Team. Jerami is an active member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6); The Sedona Conference Working Group 11 on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11); chairs the Diversity Subcommittee on Attraction; and is a member and former chair of the WG6 Middle East Committee.

Colman McCarthy

Shook, Hardy & Bacon, LLP, Kansas City, MO, USA

Colman is a partner in the Privacy and Data Security Practice at Shook, Hardy & Bacon. He advises clients across the country on their obligations under both domestic and international privacy and data security laws. He focuses on providing practical advice that goes beyond simple compliance with the letter of the law, to understand the unique circumstances and considerations for each client, having worked with government, private industry and nonprofit entities nationwide. A Certified Information Privacy Professional and Chambers USA recognized privacy attorney, Colman is also an active member of The Sedona Conference Working Group 11 – Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11).

Douglas McNamara

Cohen Milstein, Washington, DC, USA

Doug is a Partner at Cohen Milstein, and a member of the firm's Consumer Protection practice group. He specializes in litigating complex, multi-state class action lawsuits against manufacturers and consumer service providers, such as banks, insurers, credit card companies. He has helped litigate precedent-setting cases, involving issues of preemption, choice of law, and class certification. He is Co-Lead Counsel in the MGM Hotel Data Breach, on the Plaintiffs Steering Committee on the Blackbaud Data Breach and the AHCA Data Breach, and has worked extensively on data breach cases involving Anthem, Facebook, and Marriott.

Matthew Meade

Eckert Seamans, Pittsburgh, PA, USA

Matt is a member of the Data Security and Privacy Group at Eckert Seamans. Matt works closely with clients to manage and respond to data security breaches involving state law issues and federal law such as HIPAA. He helps clients to proactively identify business risks associated with the use and storage of sensitive information.

He regularly conducts cyber training and runs interactive breach exercises. Matt's practice requires in-depth knowledge of security breach notification laws and other U.S. state and federal data security requirements (including laws regarding disposal of records). Matt obtained his B.A. in Political Science from Yale University, and his J.D. from Fordham Law School.

Douglas Meal

Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, Boston, MA, USA

Doug defends clients targeted by litigation and government investigations stemming from major privacy and cybersecurity incidents. According to Chambers USA 2017, companies select Doug because he is "regarded by market sources as the leading privacy litigator in the USA." As the lead outside lawyer handling claims stemming from the data security breaches suffered by Target, Neiman Marcus, The Home Depot, Hilton Worldwide, Landry's, Arby's, Supervalu, Sally Beauty, Sony, Heartland Payment Systems, TJ Maxx, Hannaford Brothers, Aldo, Genesco, and Wyndham Hotels—some of the most highly publicized data security breaches in recent years—Doug has become the national leader in defending companies that suffer significant cybersecurity breaches involving consumer information against the ensuing claims and regulatory investigations. Doug's recent successes include leading the team that prevailed in the closely-watched LabMD v. FTC, convincing the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit to become the first court ever to overturn a cybersecurity enforcement action by the Federal Trade Commission.

Kelly Ruane Melchiondo

Bilzin Sumberg Baena Price & Axelrod LLP, Miami, FL, USA

Kelly is a Partner in Bilzin Sumberg's Construction Group and Data Security & Privacy Team. Kelly's practice focuses on complex litigation, in both jury and non-jury trials, of claims involving construction and design defects, construction contract claims, and products liability at the trial and appellate levels in federal and state courts. Her cybersecurity practice focuses on counseling clients on complying with privacy laws in multiple jurisdictions, drafting and implementing privacy policies and terms of use, strengthening internal controls, assisting clients with data breach prevention and response, and defending clients in data breach litigation.

David Moncure

DaVita, Denver, CO, USA

David is VP / Associate General Counsel Information Lifecycle Governance for DaVita. He oversees all aspects of information governance and eDiscovery globally for DaVita as well as assisting with data security and protection compliance. Prior to joining DaVita, David served as International eDiscovery and Data Privacy Counsel for Shell Oil Company. He advised Shell businesses and functions on international eDiscovery issues, data breach response situations, IT security, and various other data privacy and cybersecurity related issues. He began his practice at Norton Rose Fulbright, where he assisted clients with eDiscovery, information governance, and data privacy issues. David's practice spans work throughout the US, EU, Latin America, Middle East, and APAC. He is a frequent speaker and author of numerous articles on eDiscovery and data protection issues, particularly on cross-border issues. David is Chair Emeritus of the Steering Committee of The Sedona Conference Working Group 11 on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11) and also is an active member of Working Group 1 on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1) and Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (WG6).

James J. Pizzirusso

Hausfeld, Washington, DC, USA

James is a founding partner in Hausfeld's Washington, DC office. His practice centers on representing plaintiffs in class actions cases involving consumer protection and cybersecurity/privacy (chair of practice group), antitrust, environmental torts, and sports and entertainment law. In addition to practicing law, James has served as a visiting professor at George Washington University Law School. In his consumer and cybersecurity practice, James has served in court appointed leadership capacities in dozens of major class actions recovering hundreds of millions of dollars for his clients. In the antitrust sector, James generally handles direct purchaser class actions alleging price fixing and collusion in various agricultural and food sectors. He presently serves as Co-Chair of the American Bar Association's Antitrust Section's Food and Agriculture Committee. Super Lawyers has recognized James as a Top Rated Class Action & Mass Torts Attorney and Who's Who Legal: Competition named him as one of the country's leading antitrust practitioners. In 2017, the National Law Journal recognized James as a "Cybersecurity Trailblazer" for his work on behalf of consumer and financial institutions impacted by data breaches.

Kaleigh Powell

Tousley Brain Stephens, Seattle, WA, USA

Kaleigh is an Associate at Tousley Brain Stephens in Seattle, Washington, where her practice focuses on class action and commercial cases. Before starting at Tousley Brain Stephens, Kaleigh clerked for the Honorable Robert H. Cleland in the Eastern District of Michigan. She is the author of "A Nuanced Approach": How Washington Courts Should Apply the Filed Rate Doctrine, 92 Wash. L. Rev. 481 (2017), which was quoted with approval in Harvey v. Centene Management Co. LLC, 357 F. Supp. 3d 1073, 1084 (E.D. Wash. 2018).

Ruth Elizabeth Promislow

Bennett Jones LLP, Toronto, ON, Canada

Ruth practices in the areas of privacy, data protection and management, cybersecurity, and fraud. She has over 20 years of experience in litigating complex commercial disputes in a wide variety of areas (including privacy, cybersecurity, fraud, reinsurance, and professional negligence), with an impressive track record of success. Ruth has extensive experience with data protection, privacy, and cybersecurity matters including regulatory compliance, cyber preparedness, breach response, and related litigation.

Prof. Brian Ray

Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Cleveland, OH, USA

Brian has extensive experience in eDiscovery, information governance and data privacy. He and Candice Hoke founded and co-direct the Center for Cybersecurity and Privacy Protection. They also are co-editors of the Center-sponsored SSRN Cybersecurity, Data Privacy and eDiscovery Law and Policy eJournal. Brian also co-founded, with Tim Opsitnick of JurInnov, the Cleveland eDiscovery Roundtable, an informal group of lawyers, judges and academics that meets monthly to discuss issues surrounding electronic discovery, cybersecurity and data privacy issues. In 2016 Ohio Attorney General Mike DeWine appointed Brian to the CyberOhio Advisory Board. He co-chairs the Northeast Ohio CyberConsortium's Workforce Development Committee and is a member of The Sedona Conference Working Group on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11). Brian also is an expert in comparative and international law. His book, Engaging with Social Rights: Participation, Procedure and Democracy in South Africa's Second-Wave provides a comprehensive analysis of the South African Constitutional Court's social rights decisions. He was a Fulbright Scholar in South Africa and has published extensively on comparative constitutional law and social rights.

Alfred Saikali

Shook, Hardy & Bacon L.L.P., Miami, FL, USA

Al is a partner in Shook, Hardy & Bacon's Miami office. He is a founder and co-chair of the firm's Data Security and Data Privacy Practice group. Al specializes in U.S. and international data privacy and security compliance and plays a key role in assisting companies minimize their risks associated with the collection, use, storage, and disposal of sensitive information. He also directs data breach response efforts, advises companies of applicable laws, leads their internal investigations, communicates with law enforcement and regulators, and helps to minimize negative effects in the event of a breach. Al maintains the blog, Data Security Law Journal, which focuses on data security and data privacy law. He is a Certified Information Privacy Professional and is often cited by the media about issues relating to data security, data privacy, technology, and commercial litigation.

David C. Shonka

Redgrave LLP, Chantilly, VA, USA

David is a partner at Redgrave LLP, where he counsels clients on issues related to data privacy, cybersecurity, eDiscovery, cross-border data transfers, government civil law enforcement investigations, and information governance. In addition to his work on client matters, David serves as the Firm's General Counsel and oversees and reviews legal, risk, and compliance issues. Prior to joining Redgrave LLP, he served three years as the Acting General Counsel of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) (March 2016 - April 2018, January - June 2009, and October 2012 - June 2013). In that role, he frequently commented on Federal legislative proposals and was the FTC's chief legal advisor and oversaw its Litigation, Legal Counsel, and Opinions & Analysis groups and the agency's FOIA, employment law, and Energy Counsel staff. David also served ten years as the FTC's Principal Deputy General Counsel and as a member of the Administrative Conference of the U.S., serving on the Committee on Judicial Review and the Council of Independent Regulatory Agencies. He is an active member of the Sedona Conference, and he has previously served and is now serving again on the Steering Committee for Working Group 6 (cross-border transfers of data), the Steering Committee for Working Groups 1 (e-discovery and electronic records) and is active in Working Group 11 (privacy and data security). David is a recipient of the 2015 Presidential Rank Award of Meritorious Executive.

Douglas S. Swetnam

Indiana Attorney General, Indianapolis, IN, USA

Doug is Section Chief - Data Privacy & Identity Theft Unit in the Office of Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita. He has managed the review and investigation of several thousand data breaches. He led the state's investigation and litigation against Equifax, obtaining a $19.5 million judgment. He has led multi-state litigation and multi-state investigations in matters involving technology, data breaches and HIPAA. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the Legal and Insurance working group for the Indiana Executive Cybersecurity Council. He helped form the Indiana Identity Theft Task Group with USSS, FBI, SSA OIG, IRS, US Marshalls, US Postal Inspector and state and local law enforcement. He has testified before U.S. Congressional panels and a General Accounting Office investigation related to unemployment claims. In his early career he was a litigator, where he represented insurance companies in both third party and first party cases. Prior to joining the Indiana Attorney General's office, he served as Global Director of Web Technologies for a Fortune 200 company and subsequently worked in various capacities for two additional Fortune 500 companies.

Martin T. Tully

Redgrave LLP, Chicago, IL, USA

Martin Tully is partner with the Chicago office of Redgrave LLP. He is a veteran trial lawyer with over 30 years of national experience representing companies and individuals in complex commercial litigation concerning a broad array of fields and industries. Empowered by his commercial litigation practice, Martin is nationally recognized for his knowledge and experience in the fields of electronic discovery, information governance, and data security/data privacy. Martin advances thought-leadership in data law as the Chair of the Steering Committee of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1), as an active member of the Sedona Conference Working Group on Data Security and Privacy Liability (WG11), the 7th Circuit Council on eDiscovery and Digital Information, the ABA Section of Litigation, Privacy and Data Security Committee, and the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP), as well as a director at-large of the Chicago Chapter of the Association of Certified E-Discovery Professionals (ACEDS). In addition, Martin has published and presented extensively on the topics of eDiscovery, information governance, cybersecurity, data privacy, and legal technology; is among a select group of lawyers in the world ranked for Litigation: E-Discovery & Information Governance by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers and Chambers & Partners Global; and he has been acknowledged by Who's Who Legal as being "steps ahead of his competitors" and "widely regarded for his 'superior knowledge' of electronic discovery and information governance."

Jami Mills Vibbert

Arnold & Porter, New York, NY, USA

Jami is a data protection and cybersecurity partner in the New York office of Arnold & Porter. She counsels on compliance with the ever-growing number of data protection requirements and on how to create global data strategies designed to align with these requirements in an efficient, proactive, and operationalized way. Jami assists in program and policy creation, conducts privacy and data security risk assessments, advises on data risk management, negotiates privacy and data security provisions with customers and third parties, and engages in privacy and data security due diligence. In the aftermath of a security incident or data loss, she guides clients through breach response and crisis management and has been counsel for clients in privacy and data security-focused investigations with relevant privacy and data security regulators and in privacy and data security litigation.

Larry Wescott

Arete Incident Response, Washington, DC, USA

Larry is Associate General Counsel, Privacy at Arete Incident Response. He leverages his experience in IT management and administration to oversee Arete's global security and data privacy compliance efforts. He is a contributor to two Sedona publications and is a former chair of the Technology Committee of the Litigation Section of the Maryland State Bar Association. Larry is an honors graduate of the Carey School of Law at the University of Maryland and holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business. He is also a Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP).

Jonathan M. Wilan

Baker McKenzie, Washington, DC, USA

Jonathan is a partner in the Washington, DC office of Baker & McKenzie LLP, where he focuses his practice on digital risk. In particular, he advises companies on legal requirements, processes, and technology for managing legal risk arising from digital information proactively and in the context of complex litigation, internal investigations, and regulatory responses. He earned a B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Maryland at College Park and a J.D., cum laude, from Harvard Law School.